RE: Course #09-01 BPL

Dear Mr. Cooke,

Your real estate broker prelicensing education course entitled "Montana Broker Prelicense Course" has been reviewed. It has been approved as meeting the 60 hours of real estate prelicensing education necessary for application for a Montana real estate broker's license. This approval is valid effective June 10, 2009 and will expire June 10, 2012.

You will be required to provide a certificate of completion and a student evaluation form to each prospective salesperson who completes the course.

Please note that because Cooke Real Estate School is essentially acting as a provider for the America's Best approved salesperson prelicensing course, should America's Best lose their certification or course approval, Cooke Real Estate School would also immediately lose their certification.

If I can be of any assistance with your course please feel free to contact me at 406-841-2324 or sfoosum@mt.gov.

Sincerely,

Stacey L. Fossum
